TO THE TIMES ONLY.

The Manitoba Railway Case and the Supreme Court—A Boy Suicides.

Our Defences to Be Increased—An Innocent Man—Artist O'Brien Married.

Special to the TIMES.]

Ottawa, Nov. 19—In legal circles it is contended here that the Supreme Court will refuse to try the Manitoba Crossing Case. As the Court is only asked for an opinion on the case, it is said the Court will refer the matter back to the Railway Committee of the Privy Council on the grounds that it is at present overcrowded with work. A large number of cases have been waiting for a long time for adjudication and the court has no time to act as arbitrators.

For several months past correspondence has been kept up between the Dominion and British Governments with reference to increasing the defences of Canada. It is proposed to strengthen the defences along the frontier by the establishment of garrison batteries and to increase the force in British Columbia. It is expected the elections for the Province will take place about the 10th of January.

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 19—The Legislature has adjourned till January 31st.

Percy Skead, a boy aged 8 years, was drowned while skating on the Red River. His brother Walter had a narrow escape from the same fate.

Authority was granted the government to push the constitutional rights of the province by appeal to England if necessary, and to adopt retaliatory measures against the Canadian Pacific road if its obstructionist tactics were persisted in.

ONTARIO.

A Boy Suicides for Being Scolded—An Artist Marries.

Special to THE TIMES.]

Caledonia, Ont. Nov. 18.—Albert, the 15 year old son of Ashley Booth, of Seneca township, was scolded on Friday night by his father for driving too fast. He was supposed to have gone to bed but yesterday morning his body was found hanging in a barn. He took scolding greatly to heart and committed suicide.

Toronto, Nov. 18.—R. O'Brien, the well known Canadian artist and Mrs. Parker, a sister of the manager of the Bank of Montreal, were married yesterday in St. James Cathedral.

Sarnia, Ont., Nov. 18.—D. E. Duffield, health officer at Detroit, denies the statement attributed to him that smallpox was spreading alarmingly in this section of Ontario. Nine cases in this neighborhood are all doing well.

Mitchell, Nov. 18.—David Little, merchant tailor, dropped dead on the street to-day. It is supposed he died from heart disease.

Windsor, Ont. Nov. 19.—John Cooper suicided at Ringsville yesterday by shooting himself in the head.

QUEBEC AND NEW BRUNSWICK.

Man's Innocence Established—Lawyer Disgraced.

Special to THE TIMES.]

Halifax, Nov. 18—It has just been discovered at Digby that Charles Barden, sentenced in 1875 to five years imprisonment for setting fire to a sawmill owned by Calvin Raymond, was innocent of the crime. At the time of the fire and the trial there worked in Digby a man named Patrick Lyons, who soon after disappeared. A confession made by this individual while dying at Cleveland, Ohio, states that he set the mill on fire and was paid to do it. The news has created a deep sensation in Digby.

Montreal, Nov. 18—At a meeting of the General Council of the Bar it was ordered that at the next meeting steps should be taken to erase Donald Downies name from the roll of advocates of the province of Quebec.

INLAND CAPITAL.

A Convention of Stock Raisers at Kamloops Proposed.

From the Inland Sentinel.]

The opening of the new Masonic Temple will be on the 28th inst., of which fuller particulars will be given next week.

Canon Cooper has been granted six months leave of absence from this parish, and has appointed the Rev. Henry Irwin as his locum tenens, with the Bishop's authority and sanction.

The glass registered 16 degrees of frost on Thursday night at Kamloops. The days are bright and clear, however, and everything is lovely—in the weather line. The boys and girls enjoy themselves greatly on the pond on the north side of the river.

Circulars have been issued from the Sentinel office this week, designed to be forwarded to all the stock-raisers throughout the province, and some to those in the Northwest Territories, asking that a convention be held at Kamloops on the 7th day of January, 1889, for the purpose of forming an association for the mutual benefit and protection of those people. In addition the circular suggests that annual stock shows be held in the province at which prizes would be offered for the stock shown, and in this way a motive would be given for the better improvement of the stock raised.

VANCOUVER NEWS.

The Odd Fellows—Those Policemen—The Greyhounds—Coming Events.

From our own Correspondent.]

Vancouver, Nov. 17—The police force in this city has been reinforced by three new men, so that hence forth the city will be much better guarded at night.

Yesterday the C. P. R. engineers were at work south of False Creek, taking bearings and elevations in connection with the road which is shortly to be constructed between here and the Sound.

A very enjoyable social was held at the Methodist Tabernacle last evening, under the auspecies of the W. C. T. U.

Mr. Gideon Robertson's name is mentioned as a representative for ward 5 at the next election for Aldermen for this city.

The Vancouver I. O. O. F. Lodge held a special meeting last evening for the purpose of initiating some new members. The Grand Master, Mr. Joshua Davies, Messrs. McIntosh, of Victoria, and McColl, of New Westminster, representative of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, were present and kindly instructed the officers presiding in the secret workings of the order. After the meeting was closed the Lodge invited their visiting friends to the Dougall House, where a supper was prepared and to which ample justice was done.

The football match which was to have taken place on the recreation grounds this afternoon, between the English members of the club and those of other nationalities, was postponed on account of the unfit state of the ground. A practice game was had instead.

This evening the members of the Vancouver football clud assembled in the Greyhound hotel to witness the naming of the football cup presented by Mr. H. Ball to the players of the province. The cup was filled to the brim with the ruby red wine and formally and appropriately named the "Greyhound Cup," by the Misses Parker and Hutchinson, after which the members pledged themselves to use their utmost endeavors to retain the cup in Vancouver for the ensuing year.

To-day two of Vancouver's most charming maidens left this city for Victoria, where Dame Rumor, who always manages to get ahead of the reporter in matters of this kind, says that the younger is to be married on Wednesday next to one of our most energetic and successful contractors of the Capalino water works fame. NEW WESTMINSTER.

The Assizes—Verdict of Manslaughter Against Two Chinese.

Special to THE TIMES.]

New Westminster, Nov. 19—At the Assizes on Saturday, the 17th instant, the case of Hen Cook and Ah Yon, charged with the murder of Josephine, an Indian girl, at Ladner's Landing, occupied the time of the court all day. Mr. Drake, Q. C., for the Crown, and Mr. Bole, Q. C., and Mr. McColl for the defense. The prisoners pleaded not guilty and the jury being called was charged in personal about a dozen times by counsel for the defense. Those being considered strong anti-Chinese were rejected. The evidence produced went to show the girl was lying in a tent sick with a cold. Three Chinamen came along and to effect a cure subjected the girl by force to their own peculiar barbarous treatment. An hour after the patient died. Two Chinamen were arrested, but the other made his escape. His Lordship charging the jury ruled that a person not qualified as a doctor treating afflicted to effect a cure, might not be guilty, the criminal act providing where qualified doctors were not available, but in this instance the prisoners were guilty of criminal neglect, as Ladner's Landing was within a reasonable distance of doctors and the prisoners made no effort to secure them according to law. A person might be responsible for human life by neglect as well as be act. The jury retired and in three hours and a half returned with a verdict of manslaughter. Court then adjourned till 11 to-day. Hon. Justice McCreight took the bench at 11:20 this morning. The case of Jones for the murder of Durant at Ladner's Landing is in progress, and is expected to occupy all the evening.

AN APPEAL FOR FUNDS

For Parnell's Defend—The Irish of America Asked to Contribute.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 17—John Fitzgerald, president of the Irish National League, has issued a circular to the members of the league calling upon them to come to the rescue of Parnell and assist him with funds in his defence against the Times. The circular says: "The foulest conspiracy known to British history, since the days of Titus Oates, has been entered into by the present Government of England under cover of the London Times newspaper, for the purpose of thwarting the efforts of Mr. Parnell and his colleagues to secure by constitutional agitation the legislative rights of the Irish people. Failing by every other device known to the tyrant and oppressor to suppress the aspirations of men who struggling for liberty already begin to breathe its atmosphere, this Tory Government, beaten in its role of the tiger, now descends to the slimy methods of the serpent. Salisbury and his cabinet have stooped to employ moral bravos, forgers, perjurers and outcasts of society, to forswear the characters of the Irish leaders and thus drive them from public life, hoping thereby to force the Irish people to adopt as their only alternative a policy of violence and despair. Every branch of the league is most earnestly requested to raise at once a Parnell defence fund and remit the same as speedily as possible to Rev. Chas. O'Reilly, D.D., Detroit, Mich. The urgency is very great. Ireland speaks by the voice of Charles Stewart Parnell; he asks assistance for the cause of motherland rather than for the cause of personal defence. He asks your help in the name of the living and by the memory of the dead. I will answer for you. You never failed Ireland in the past, and you will not fail her now.

PRESENTATION AND ADDRESS.

Farewell to Mr. and Mrs. G. A. McTavish, of Saanich.

The ladies of Saanich gave a farewell ball on Friday evening, at the Agricultural Hall, South Saanich. The ball was given to Mr. and Mrs. G. A. McTavish, who are leaving the district to reside in Victoria. Nearly 200 ladies and gentlemen were present. The hall was decorated and music was furnished by Prof. Haynes' orchestra. During Friday afternoon a committee of ladies of Saanich presented Mrs. McTavish with a beautiful arm chair as a mark of their appreciation and esteem. The following address was presented to Mr. McTavish, the retiring Secretary of the Saanich Agricultural Society:

ADDRESS.

To G. A. McTAVISH, ESQ.:

Dear Sir,—The officers and members of the Saanich Agricultural Society wish to convey to you their regret at the prospect of your early removal from this district, thus depriving them of your valuable assistance in conducting the business of the Society.

During your time of office you inaugurated a thorough system upon which the business for some years past has been so successfully carried on, and the careful, correct and impartial performance of the duties pertaining to the office, have added materially to the growth and prosperity of our institution.

By your affable manner and gentlemanly conduct you have won the respect and esteem of your brother officers, together with all those you came in contact with.

As your removal necessitates your withdrawal from office as Secretary, we trust you will accept the present accompanying this address as a token of our appreciation of your services; and rest assured, you and your estimable lady carry with you our best wishes for your future prosperity and happiness.

TO-DAY'S DISPATCHES.

Death of Sir John Macdonald's Sister—Immigration During the Past Season.

Governorship of Newfoundland—Trouble in Bolivia—Shot His Brother.

Ottawa, Nov. 18.—The official returns for October show the total immigration for the month to have been 18,926, or upwards of 3000 more than in same month of 1887. There is about the same increase in the number of settlers in the Domision during the month, 8,558, and on the month ending on 31st of October the total settlement 78,212, an increase of 10,511 on the returns during the same period last year.

DEATH OF MISS MACDONALD.

Miss MacDonald, sister of the Premier, died at Kingston yesterday, after an illness extending over several weeks. Sir John left for Kingston on Saturday and was therefore in time to see her before her demise. The deceased lady has for many years lived with her late sister, Mrs. Williams, wife of the Rev. Prof. Williams of Queen's College. She was a member of St. Andrews Presbyterian congregation of Kingston, and was a constant worker in connection with philanthropic and missionary schemes.

HE SHOT HIS BROTHER.

Portland, Ogn., Nov. 19—Alfred Milan, 12 years old, shot and killed his fourteen year old brother James by accident while they were hunting in Clackamas county, on Saturday.

TROUBLE IN BOLIVIA.

San Francisco, Nov. 19—The steamer Acapulco from Panama, brings news of a revolution in Bolivia. A number of military leaders, among them being General Camacho, were dissatisfied with President Aricer's administration, and endeavored to overthrow him and make Camacho president in his stead. The rebels occupied several towns, but in the fight with the government forces they were defeated. General Camacho was taken prisoner and is now at Oruro, which has been declared the general headquarters of the army. The rebels have not been daunted by the capture of their leader and at latest advices were preparing for further action.

GOVERNOR OF NEWFOUNDLAND.

London, Nov. 19—It is reported that Blake, whose appointment as Governor of Queensland met with opposition in the colony, will be retained as Governor Newfoundland.

ATTACK ON BISMARCK.

London, Nov. 19.—The St. Petersburg Messenger makes a surprising charge against Prince Bismarck. It says that in 1863, he then being in the diplomatic service of Prussia, and pretending all the time to be acting for the Czar, entered into a plot for the annexation of Russia Poland to Prussia. There is not as much in the charge itself but the fact that the Russian censorship should allow it to be published in a St. Petersburg journal excites astonishment.

BRIGHT VERY ILL.

John Bright passed a restless night; to-day the bronchitis has increased.

BALFOUR ILL.

Balfour, Chief Secretary of Ireland, is confined to his bed with chills and fever.

A ROYAL PARTY.

Dowager Empress Frederick, of Prussia, arrived at Port Victoria, near Portsmouth, this morning and was met by the Queen, Princesses Beatrice and Louise, Count Von Hatzfeldt and the German Ambassador. The party then proceeded to Windsor.

SMUGGLING OPIUM AGAIN.

Buffalo, Nov. 19—Three Chinamen and two Americans were arraigned this morning charged with opium smuggling and were held in $3000 for trial. Over $15,000 worth of opium has been smuggled by a syndicate into Buffalo.

FOUND WITH HER SKULL BROKEN.

Chicago, Nov. 19.—The remains of a young woman were found lying with a broken skull on the Grand Boulevard Saturday night and identified as that of Eva Nutchell, 19 years old, of 521 West 38th street. She had an excellent reputation. The police are certain she was murdered. Two of her young admirers were arrested this morning.

A SEWER CAVES IN.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 19—A sewer in course of construction on 32nd street caved in this morning instantly killing James Sands, a contractor, and Chas. Baker, a bricklayer. Several other workmen were slightly injured.

SACKVILLE SOLD OUT.

Washington, Nov. 19—The personal effects of Lord Sackville were disposed of by the British Minister and sold at auction to-day. The articles included furniture, wines, horses, carriages, etc. A large crowd attended, many evidently from curiosity and big prices were made.

BEEF AND CATTLE INVESTIGATION.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 19—The Senate committee appointed to investigate dressed beef and cattle in transit industries commences its labors here to-day. The International Range Association and National Butchers' Protection Association are in session here and will aid the Senate committee in their labors by furnishing evidence. The Texas conventions last night, in joint session, determined to ignore the committee appointed by the Chicago Live Stock Association and excluded it from their meetings. Senator Vest said yesterday that it was the intention of the committee to thoroughly investigate the whole matter and ascertain the cause of the disastrous depreciation in value of cattle.

SACKVILLE WEST.

Ottawa, Nov. 17—Lord Sackville and the Misses West have abandoned their proposed trip to Ottawa. The Governor-General has received a dispatch that they will sail from New York for France at an early day.

BRITISH MINISTER AT WASHINGTON.

London, Nov. 17—Parliament will be questioned on Monday with reference to the appointment of a successor to Lord Sackville as British Minister at Washington. On Thursday the fisheries dispute will be brought up.

SPEECH BY BALFOUR.

London, November 17.—Balfour, Chief Secretary of Ireland, made a speech tonight at Leeds. In criticising Gladstone's recent speech at Birmingham he said the allegations set forth by the ex-premier were characterized by unblushing impudence. It was monstrous that the very man who had appointed the bulk of the resident magistracy in Ireland, although he knew that his invective had led to murder and suicide, should in order to obtain cheers from a Birmingham mob hold them up to the odium of their fellow men. Never once in the course of a long speech had Gladstone deviated into accuracy. A more scandalous performance had never been given by a great statesman.

A NEW "COLONIAL" RIGHT.

Melbourne, Nov. 16—In the Assembly to-day, the question of the abstract right of the colonies to participate in the nomination of their Governors was debated. The Premier held that the Queen alone has the appointive power, acting upon the advice of her ministers responsible to the Imperial Parliament. He argued that this was a wise provision, for deadlocks would be probable if the election rested with both the colonial and Imperial powers. The less the colonies insisted upon their right to dictate the appointments the better. Other members spoke in a similar strain.

SEIZURE OF NOVA SCOTIA.

London, Nov. 17—The papers are making fun of the scheme gravely suggested by the New York Herald and discussed in other American journals for seizing Nova Scotia and the West Indies. The St. James Gazette to-night says that the Americans are gluttons for sensations, and not content with the Sackville incident, the president-elect is now clamoring for the sudden capture of Halifax and Bermuda. Surely the American eagle is screaching just now.

DECLINED THE GOVERNORSHIP.

A notice posted outside of the Conservative Club at Chatham to-day says that Sir John Gorst, the Under Secretary for India, was offered but declined the Governorship of Newfoundland.

RIGHT OF COLONIES TO PROTEST.

The Times again discusses the Queensland incident. While agreeing that reasonable objections to a Crown nominee should receive careful attention it believes that the less the colonies insist upon any claim to share in the nomination of their governor the better for the colonies. The Spectator urges the government not to withdraw Sir H. A. Blake in accordance with Queensland's request. There have been lessons of cordial relations of mutual respect between the colonies and the motherland and it is suggested that seeing the great importance of the constitutional question involved Canada will follow the example of Victoria and express an opinion to assist the decision of the Imperial Government. Victoria heartily supports the present position of entire imperial responsibility.

AMERICANS DID RIGHT.

London, Nov. 17—Lord Randolph Churchill, in a speech at Paddington today expressed a hope that the post of minister at Washington would be filled. There was no doubt that Lord Sackville had been primarily indiscreet and had made an inexcusable blunder. No fault could be found with the United States toward the minister. The American people were justly proud in their relations with other countries. He deprecated the insulting and menacing articles in the London press in regard to Sackville's dismissal, and said Englishmen ought to inform all Americans that they cherish no ill-feeling toward them. [Cheers.]

Lord Randolph attached the greatest importance to the maintenance by England of an imperturbable and friendly attitude towards the United States. He regarded the attitude taken by Mr. Cleveland after the rejection of the fisheries treaty by the senate as an unfortunate one. The utmost allowance ought to be made for the American position on the Sackville affair, in view of the time at which it occurred. Cleveland's action had been rather sharp, but it did not justify the menaces, sneers and sulks in which the newspapers of England had indulged.

War between England and the United States, he declared, would be more atrocious and dangerous than any war since God created the earth. He trusted the government's policy toward the new Washington administration would be concerned with a view to making the American people our best allies on all questions, and of producing a durable friendship between the English-speaking races, thus guaranteeing to humanity in turn the blessing of liberty and peace.

SEALERS CLAIMS.

Ottawa, Nov. 17.—Several of the cabinet ministers express their belief that a settlement of the Behring sea and Alaska boundary question will not be delayed by the defeat of Mr. Cleveland's administration. The negotiations regarding the seizures of the Canadian sealers by the American revenue cutters are still in progress.

WANT HOME RULE.

London, Nov. 17.—Dispatches from Australia show that the people of New South Wales and New Zealand are of the same mind with the people of Queensland on the right of the colony to be consulted regarding the choice of governors.

KEELY IN PRISON.

Philadelphia, Nov. 17.—The court this morning issued an attachment against Keely for contempt of court in refusing to produce the model of his motor as ordered. Keely was subsequently committed to the county prison till he should purge himself of contempt by compliance with the order of the court.

BELMONT RESIGNS.

Washington, Nov. 17—Representative Perry Belmont of the First New York district, has been tendered and accepted the appointment as minister to Spain to succeed J. L. M. Curry, resigned. Belmont wrote at once to the governor of New York to resign his office as representative, in order that his place may be filled by a special election.

ANXIOUS TO COMPROMISE.

Vienna, Nov. 17—King Milan has offered to confirm the right of ex-Queen Natalie to the title of "her majesty," provided she foregoes the intended protest to Europe and admits the legality of the divorce.

For Home and Country.

The British Columbia Directory. This home production is now in press and will be issued at as early a date as possible. Subscribers that have not signed for copies will confer a favor by sending in their names before the end of November to the office, 28 Broad street. R. T. Williams, publisher.

A Success.

CARIBOO POLITICS.

The information received from the more populous sections of Cariboo does not assist us in arriving at an opinion as to which of the three candidates is likely to be successful. Mr. Barnard labors under the disadvantage of being a non-resident; but his large business interests in the district and the support of a number of influential men, will offset to a considerable extent the misfortune of being comparatively youthful and an "outsider." Mr. Rogers is strong in Barkerville district and hopes to poll as many votes there as the other two candidates combined. Mr. McLeese stands well all over the district, and if the last provincial election, when his popularity was shown by the large vote received in his favor, is any criterion, he will not be last in the race. But when well-informed residents of the district are "all at sea" in regard to the probable decision of the electors, it would be presumptuous for a person so far removed from the scene, to hazard even a guess as to which of the three will be the winner. They are all pledged supporters of the present Dominion Government, and on the score of party it makes little difference which one is delegated to Ottawa to assist in perpetuating Conservative rule. But although Cariboo, like Victoria, is ostensibly Conservative, there is such a spirit of Liberalism abroad among the electorate—or more correctly speaking, such a contempt for partyism—that it might reasonably have been expected that one candidate at least would have deemed it politic to appeal to the people on broader grounds than is possible as a pledged supporter of the Conservative party. Our people are unquestionably not in sympathy with the Liberal party, owing to the policy of that party on the railway question; but nevertheless they are not Conservative in the sense that Sir John's followers in Ontario are Conservative, and they are not in accord with much of his policy and do not approve of many of the acts of his government. British Columbia will attain to greater importance in the councils of the nation, and its representatives be more respected, when they refuse to follow at the beck and call of the Conservative leaders.

THE CITY TRASURER.

The cool assurance with which Mr. Duck retains the position of municipal treasurer and at the same time his seat in the Legislature, continues to surprise people who do not know the gentleman's record. It is, however, not unlike the stupid blunders which Mr. Duck has been accustomed to make ever since he entered political life and which have now led to the practical shelving of him by his party. Had he pursued a consistent, common-sense course as a politician it would not have been necessary for him to hire himself out as a clerk of the Victoria corporation, and if he continues to pursue the same senseless course as a clerk which he did as a politician the same reason will exist for removing him from his present position as there was of removing him from politics. A man who cannot see what is in his own interest is too obtuse to do the work of the corporation. The Times has nothing against Mr. Duck and nothing to gain by his either retaining his seat or resigning it, but the Times has the sense to know that Mr. Duck has no right to be in the employ of the city government and still a representative of the people in the Legislature. Would Mr. Duck think of retaining his seat under the Dominion Government? Yet the civic and provincial bodies are much more intimately related than the Dominion and provincial are. The want of respect shown by Mr. Duck for custom, precedent, good taste and the general fitness of things is simply inexplicable.

THE MONKEY FABLE.

The mind of man is something akin to the mid air atmosphere—a conglomeration of opposites. Science tells us that the clouds of mid-air are made up of vapours from malodorous cesspools, smoke from fires and incense from the altars. Often does the former create those beautiful, fleecy, rolling clouds which we look upon with admiration when gilded and burnished by the declining sun. Clouds partake much of the source from whence they spring, and when surcharged pour down upon the earth, carrying with them the foulness of their composition. Thus it is that the rain of cities is charged with impurities, soiling and contaminating all that is cleanly and delicate. When the brain of a newspaper man forms his ideas from sources similar to the clouds, we find them in the same way, poured upon the minds of an unsuspecting public through the columns of the press. If those ideas spring from an immoral source we must expect to be spattered with immorality; if from corruption, corruption; if from tyranny, tyranny; and if from depravity, depravity. Often is the altar incense thrown in to deceive the innocent and unsuspecting, and to lend a sweet smell to its vapourings. Sometimes they are disagreeably and vulgarly truthful, especially when they burst forth in a shower of fable to illustrate their ideas. We have an instance of this kind, when the Colonist alloted the fable of the monkey and the cocoa-nut to illustrate the relative positions of its patrons and his less "industrious" brothers. We cannot say that the similitude is not perfect, or that the personification is not true to life. As to how the dull conception which drew the comparison ever created it, is quite unaccountable, and must be attributed to one of those inexplicable accidents which from time to time produce truthful incidents. Our esteemed morning contemporary, however, will not be congratulated by Mr. Dunsmuir on the aptitude of the similitude. That gentleman will not feel flattered, and in these days of libel suits we are not certain that he may not enter an action for defamation of character against his own "organ." The Colonist does not enlighten its readers on the question of species, but the clan owning chimpanzee at the foot of the tree very probably belonged to the bald-headed species of the newspaper fraternity, who have on more than one occasion profited by the "industry," (we will call it that for the sake of harmony) of the highly respectable gentleman which it compares to a monkey. The Times has said many things about the President of the Council, but we always had too much respect and regard for his intellect and abilities to thus degrade him in the eyes of his fellow men. He must feel highly elated and no doubt will supply the hungry crowd with a very small piece of the nut in order to reward them for their enlightened and highly flattering parable.

COLONIAL GOVERNORSHIPS.

The people of the colony of Queensland have protested against the appointment of Sir H. A. Blake as their Lieutenant-Governor. The reason for the objection is not given. In the early history of our Colonial Empire, governorships were not, as a rule, appointed for ability or aptitude, but as the reward for political corruption. The husband of a cast off mistress, or the confidential valet who knew too much of his employer's family affairs to be convenient, were too often deemed suitable men for such offices. When we read of a Governor of New York, in the reign of Queen Anne, dressing himself up in gown, petticoats and furbelows, because he wished to convey a right impression as to whom he represented, much can not be said for ability, or of the dude who ran away from his New England governorship because the council sat before him in flannel nightcaps. Since the American Revolution, however, governors for the colonies have generally been selected for ability. Canada has, on the whole, been very fortunate in the selection of her governors. We have had men of not only ability, but of genius, presiding as chief magistrate. The office of governor should, in order to be effective, be non-political, and, therefore, a colonial government ought to have little to say regarding the choice. 'Tis true, the colony pays him; still he is looked upon as merely an umpire between parties. If there is to be a Governor, the appointment should be left entirely in the hands of the Colonial Office. This gives confidence to the people, who rely on firm and just administration. The present Queensland Government may have some substantial reasons for not accepting Sir H. A. Blake as the head of their Executive; if not, then the protest against the appointment must be looked upon with suspicion. If we are to maintain the Imperial connection, we must submit to some slight show of suzerainity of the Throne, and the office of Governor is at once the cheapest and best we are called upon to submit to. The Imperial authorities, of late years, have always diligently watched the administrations of their appointees to the Colonies, and mal-administration or incompetency has never been permitted to pass with impunity. Governor Wall was tried, found guilty, and hanged at Newgate, for flogging a man to death thirty years after the offence was committed. The suppression of the negro agitation in Jamaica in 1867 led to the recall of Governor Eyre, who narrowly escaped the fate of the unfortunate Wall. There is no reason to complain that unconstitutional acts, perpetrated in distant colonies by governors, have been condoned without adequate punishment being administered. The present action of the Queensland Government, in their protest against the appointment of Governor Blake, cannot be said to be a move in favor of Imperial Federation. Were the Australian colonies to confederate into a Dominion the same as Canada, they would have only the burthen of one colonial office appointment, instead as now of some four or five, and each separate province of the confederation would then have a Lieutenant-Governor chosen from amongst themselves.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Northern Pacific & Manitoba Railway Company have applied to the Dominion Parliament through the Canada Gazette for an act of incorporation.

The Vancouver News endorses our views on the question of increased hotel accommodation, especially for the encouragement of tourist travel. The News says: "We are inclined to think that our contemporary does not put the matter as strongly as it might do as regards the commercial value of the scheme to Victoria. It has been estimated that the tourists who annually visit Colorado expend between one and two millions in that state during their sojourn there. The tourist business has indeed been no unimportant factor in building up Denver, and, but for this particular class of patronage, the magnificent hotels that are found in that city and other places of Colorado and New Mexico would scarcely pay the proprietors for the expense to which they go in the entertainment of their guests. Doubtless, Colorado, like California, has many things in its climate and scenery which will always attract large numbers of visitors, but when, by the opening up of wagon roads, the extension of our present railway systems and the increase of our fleets of passenger steamers our own province is made more accessible, and its many points of interest can be reached with less inconvenience, our visitors will find that British Columbia scenery is not equalled by that in the states on the eastern slope of the Rockies. Our coast scenery—the beauty of the inumerable inlets and fiords with which our shores are indented—will itself repay a long journey to behold and when means are provided by which this can be enjoyed without discomfort or a very large outlay, we may be sure that it will attract visitors from all quarters. The increasing popularity on the trip to Alaska is a proof of this."

SATAN'S DISGUISES.

DR. TALMAGE'S DISCOURSE ON MAN'S ANCIENT ENEMY.

The Fiend's Various Manners of Traveling the Earth and His Subtle Aptitude for Sowing the Seeds of Woe and Damnation—The Devil's Power.

BROOKLYN, Nov. 11.—The throngs in and around Brooklyn Tabernacle are on the increase. As an evidence of the demand for Dr. Talmage's work, 250,000 copies of his forthcoming subscription book, "The Pathway of Life," have been bought from the Historical company by Messrs. B. F. Johnson & Co., of Richmond, Va., although the retail prices are from $2.50 to $5 a copy. In the history of literature no book has had such an advanced sale.

At the Tabernacle this morning the Rev. T. De Witt Talmage, D.D., took for the subject of his sermon: "Satan on His Travels." His text was, Job i, 7: "And the Lord said unto Satan: Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the Lord, and said: From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it."

In 1672 was printed the largest book ever published, namely, two huge volumes of near 5,000 pages, in small type; the author Joseph Caryl. It was a commentary on this Book of Job. When it took a year for the journey from England to India, the son of the author of this commentary started for India, leaving his father writing on his book, and was gone for years, and when he came back to England still found his father writing on it. I never saw the commentary, but I do not wonder at its size because there is no end to the interest of the book of Job. I am not surprised that Goethe, the unbeliever, took from this wonderful book the opening of his drama "Faust" and the Mephistopheles of the great German was only the Satan of Job. It seems that one day in heaven God was on His throne and angels and messengers came to report on their different missions. I suppose one angel said: "I was out among the stars and I saw one of them burn down." Another angel, I imagine, said: "I was off on a stellar excursion and was present at the birth of a new world." Another angel, I think, said: "I was journeying five hundred million miles in the wilderness of immensity and I saw a meteor run down a planet." Another angel: "I was off and helped at the inauguration of a new race of beings amid the mountains and valleys of that mighty world in the southeast part of the heavens." But while these good and great spirits were making their reports a ghastly, grizzly, hideous monster from some miry sulphurous, filthy world, came into the palace without wiping his feet, and God asked him where and how he had been occupying himself, and this greatest scoundrel of the universe made reply with blazing effrontery, and instead of acknowledging any of the mischief he had been doing said he had been an earthly pedestrian and had lived a sort of circumambulatory, peripatetic life. "And the Lord said unto Satan: Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the Lord and said: From going to and fro in the earth and from walking up and down in it."

THE NUMEROUS LIEUTENANTS OF SATAN UPON EARTH.

This monster of my text has a great variety of names. You know that notorious villains are apt to take a variety of names. Arraigned in Paris for burglary a man will give one name, arrested in San Francisco for arson he will give another name, imprisoned at Montreal for murder he will give another name. So this Scoundrel of my text has many names. He is called in sacred and profane literature Abaddon, Apollyon, Ahrimanes, Zamiel, Asmodeus the revenging devil, Beelzebub the sovereign of devils, Lucifer the brilliant devil, Diabolus the despairing devil, Mammon the money devil, Pluto the fiery devil, Baal the military devil, Bezoka the plugging devil. He is called the father of lies, and has for his children and grandchildren and great grandchildren all falsehoods, deceptions, frauds, swindles, slanders, backbitings and subterfuges. All men of good sense, whether enlightened by the Bible or in heathendom, have noticed that there are baleful and maleficent influences abroad that have not their origin in the human race, and demonology is as certain as angelology. The sword of Paracelsus was thought to have had a demon in the hilt and there is now a demon in every sword hilt. The ancients supposed the air was filled with sylphs and satyrs and sirens and gnomes and vamptres and salamanders and undines and hobgoblins. The Talmud says that Adam's first wife was Lillis and that their children were all devils. Two or three hundred years ago a demonographer gave the names of ambassadors of evil which he thought Satan sent to different countries: Mammon, ambassador to England; Belphegor, ambassador to France; Martinet, ambassador to Switzerland; Rimmon, ambassador to Russia; Thannis, ambassador to Spain; Hutgin, ambassador to Italy; and that there was a princess of devils by the name of Proserpina. But what was mere guess work of mythology or superstition has been made clear by divine revelation. We find that there is somewhere a monarch of all wickedness. He has a throne of power and courtiers and armies and navies and machinery of evil vast as the round world. He is the supervisor of all mischief, and what he cannot do himself he delegates others to do, and as each one of our race is supposed to have a guardian good angel, I have no doubt that every human being has a besieging malignant spirit nagging his footsteps and trying to make him think wrong and act wrong, an especial devil, a devil of fraud or a devil of avarice or a devil of uncleanness or a devil of poor health, and as in my text the spirits are represented as reporting to the Lord, so I have no doubt the evil spirits report to Satan, who is the enemy of the whole human race, and who has a celerity that makes flight around the world a matter of a second, and who marshals on his side the forces volcanic, atmospheric, epidemic, geologic, oceanic and cyclonic. "And the Lord said unto Satan: Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the Lord and said: From going to and fro in the earth and from walking up and down in it."

THE AGE OF SATAN'S BLIGHTING RULE.

Satan began his attack on this world long before Adam and Eve were created. While I believe the Bible record that the world was fitted up for man's residence in one week, I believe also the geological record that the world was previously for hundreds of thousands of years going through great changes. The lumber for the house that was to be built in a week for our first parents may have been hauled to the spot a million years before. This Prince of the Power of the Air has been trying for all that million years to demolish and use up this world. The record is on the rocks. He tried to drown it with universal waters. He tried to burn it up with universal fires. Then he tried to freeze it into ruin, and covered it with universal glacier. And for ages he kept this world before our first parents occupied it in paroxysms and convulsions, and the remains of those struggles I have seen, and you have seen in museums, or if with geologist's hammer you have gone down into the stone libraries of the mountains. Yes, after the famous Bible week the world had been fitted into a paradise for the home of our sinless ancestors, Satan comes into the Garden of Eden, not through the gate of foliage and verdant in nature, but crawls in under the fence a snake, and having despoiled our first parents goes to work to ruin Paradise, and does the work so thoroughly that one who recently visited the site of the ancient garden between the rivers Tigris and Euphrates says the place is a desert, not a flower, and the ground so poor that nothing but some date trees grow there, and the miserable villagers from near by are not so well covered up with their rags as Adam and Eve were covered up with their innocence. So you see the father of lies for once told the truth when the Lord said unto him: "Whence comest thou?" and Satan answered the Lord and said: "From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it."

In my text we have Satan on his travels, and I am going to tell you some of the routes he is apt to take. On his way down from the palace where he reported himself in answer to the question, Whence comest thou? the first range of mischief he may be expected to take is the air. It was not a witticism or a slip of the pen when Paul, in his letter to the Ephesians, called Satan the "Prince of the Power of the Air." I think it means that Satan works through conditions of the atmosphere. The west wind is full of angels, the east wind is full of devils. Satan spreads abroad his black wings and hurricanes and euroclydons and Caribbean whirlwinds and equinoctials are hatched out. He takes the miasmas that float up from swamps and hatches them into typhoid fevers. He takes the cohl blasts and hatches them into pneumonias and rheumatisms and consumptions. Not only has the power in the upper air where highest clouds float, but power over the lower air which we breathe, and as we breathe nineteen times a minute and take in three hundred and fifty cubic feet of air in every twenty-four hours and much of this air affects the arterial circulation, you see what opportunities the Prince of the Air has of contaminating and despoiling and demoralizing a man. Through atmospheric influence he clouds the disposition and rasps the nerves and covers the best of people with religious despondency, as in the case of Edward Payson and William Cowper and that beloved apostle of evangelism, James W. Alexander. His great delight is to have the air of churches vitiated, and in that way dull the preacher and stupifies the people and sees to it that the atmosphere of not more than one out of a hundred churches is fit to breathe, and whole congregations, Sabbath by Sabbath, are asphyxiated. Yes, he is worthy of the title St. Paul gave him: "Prince of the Power of the Air."

MARRIAGE IS BY NO MEANS A FAILURE.

Another route he is apt to take is through domestic life. There is no greater sport for him than conjugal quarrel. It does not make any difference how long the marriage ring has been on the finger of the right hand, he will try to pull off the signet. He says to the husband: "What a plain wife you have compared with what she once was! Don't you see that the color has gone out of her cheek, and there are several wrinkles about her temples and a sprinkling of frost on her locks? Besides that, you have advanced in intelligence, while she has stood still or gone back. How hard it is that you should be chained to such dullness and imbecility!" Then he turns and says to the wife: "That man neglects you; you have a right to be jealous. He likes his cigar and his club, and anything and everything better than you. Why not get a divorce? Marriage is only a civil contract anyhow and not a divine alliance. Let me have that ring. It means nothing, and you might as well give it to me." The ring is handed over to Satan and he tosses it up and down like a plaything over the mouth of perdition and says: "I will hand it back; only let me have it a little while." And he keeps tossing that ring, with all its sacred memories, higher up and further out, tossing and catching, tossing and catching it until one day you clutch for it, crying: "Give me back my ring!" but lo, it has dropped into the yawning gulf and you suddenly find who has been pitching and catching the ring, and you cry out; "Whence comest thou?" and he answers: "From going to and fro in the domestic life of the city, and from walking up and down in it; that is all." There are thousands of marriage relations strained almost to the breaking, and I commend to all men and women who are restless in the present marriage state that they resume the old time courtship and take as much pains to make themselves agreeable as they did five or ten or twenty years ago before the ceremony which was consigned to the hushed and fluttering crowd that the bride and groom were coming. According to the statistics of Professor Dikes, in one year in moral New Hampshire there were 241 divorces; in temperate Maine, 478 divorces; in good old Massachusetts, 600 divorces, and in the New England of "steady habits," 2,113. In one county of Illinois 830 divorce suits were begun in one year, and in many places it seems as if a new arrangement had been made of the commandments, and instead of ten there were only nine, the Seventh Commandment having been left out. When you see how many husbands and wives are parted by law, and know of so many who would like to dissolve conjugal partnership, do you not come to the conclusion that Satan is engaged in mighty industries?

ANOTHER FAVORITE RESORT OF MAN'S CHIEF ENEMY.

Another route that Satan is apt to take in his active travels is the factories and other establishments where capital sits in the office or counting room and a good many hands of laborers are busy among wheels and spindles and fabrics. On this visit he will first step into the manufacturer's office and, finding the owner and proprietor of the great establishment all alone with his correspondence and his account books, says to him: "You are not making as much money as you ought to. You furnish all the brains. Were it not for your enterprise this establishment would not be in existence. These men and women in your employ are of very common mold. Their appetite is coarser and they do not need the luxuries you require. Their comfort and happiness are of very little importance. Put them down on the very verge of starvation and take all the profits into your own possession, and if they do not like it tell them to go where they can do better." Having done his work in the counting room Satan steps right out among the workmen. He says: "You work too many hours and you do your work better than it needs to be done. You are serving a bloated bondholder anyhow. He has no right to have any more than you have. Why should he ride and you walk? Why should he have tenderloin steak and you salt pork? Capital is the enemy of labor. Let labor be the sworn foe of capital. Why don't you strike and bring him to terms? Wait until he has a large order to fill by contract, and then he cannot help himself. Go all together, without a moment's warning, and tell him you are going to stop. If he has more resources than you know of and persists in going on and getting new men, give them a volley of brickbats, or put a little dynamite in his office and blow him and his factory all up with the same explosion." Look out there on the night sky! Great fire somewhere. What is it? The night is cold and Satan has made a big bonfire of that factory to warm himself by. The capitalist has lost heavily, and the workmen and their families are without bread and clothing. "Whence comest thou, Satan?" "From going to and fro among employers and employes, and from walking up and down among them. Ha! ha! I was the only one who made anything out of that strike. What a splendid fire, and lots of smoke! Ha! ha! I like smoke."

SOME REASONS WHY GOOD MEN GO WRONG.

Another route Satan is apt to take in his active travels is through the mercantile establishments. He steps in and says to the clerks: "How much salary do you get? Is that all? Why, you can't live on that! You have a right to enough for a livelihood. A few quarters out of the money drawer will never be missed; or here and there is a remnant of goods you could take home without being found out; or you could change those account books a little, and you could make that figure eight a naught and that figure five a three, and if you do not feel exactly right about doing this you can some day pay it back, which you can do perfectly easy. Don't feel like running the risk? Well, then, you can't go to the theatre, and you can't go on that round with the boys, and you will have to wear that plain coat, whereas you could have your overcoat fur lined and take board at a tip-top place and wear arms plush and tapestries positively oriental. While you are making up your mind I will just go through the different parts of this great commercial establishment and try every one, from the wealthy firm down to the errand boys." The result of that Satanic visit is that one of the partners has drawn so much out of the concern that the whole business is crippled, and a bright and promising boy is sent home to his mother in disgrace, and a young man is in jail for embezzlement. Three lives ruined and three eternities. Whence comest thou, Satan? "From going to and fro among mercantile houses and from walking up and down among them. I like to ruin splendid fellows and blast parental hopes, and of all the liquors that I ever tasted fill my glass with a brewing of agonizing tears. Come! let us click together the rims of our glasses and drink to the overthrow of the of the fifty thousand young men I ruined last year! Huzza!" Satan would rather have one young man than twenty old ones. If he would win the septuagenarians and octogenarians he could do but little harm with them. But he says: "Give me a young man, especially if he be bright and generous and social." He sees that young men have for good or bad been the mightiest influences in this world. Hernando Cortes conquered Mexico at 32. Gustavus Adolphus became immortal in history so early that he died at 38. Raphael, the most famous of painters, died at 37. William Pitt was prime minister of England at 24. Jesus Christ completed his earthly life at 33. Five years in a young man's life are of more power for good or evil than the last fifteen of an old man's life. So Satan is especially greedy for young men, and in going to and fro in the earth he has especial temptation for them.

HOW SIMPLY MEN ARE DENUDED OF THEIR SOULS.

Another route that Satan on his active travels is apt to take is for the despoiling of the people's souls. It does not pay him merely to destroy the bodies of men and women. Those bodies would soon be gone anyhow; but great treasures are involved in this Satanic excursion. On this route he meets a man who is aroused by something he has seen in the Bible, and Satan says: "Now I can settle all that; the Bible is an imposition; it has been deluding the world for centuries; do not let it delude you. It has no more authority than the Koran of the Mohammedan or the Shaster of the Hindoo, or the Zenda-Vesta of the Persian!" He meets another man who is hastening towards the kingdom of God, and says: "Why all this precipitation? Religion is right, but any time within the next ten years will be soon enough for you. A man with a stout chest like yours and such muscular development need not be bothering himself about the next world." But Satan says nothing to him about the fact that the professor who gave his whole life to the study of health and could lift more pounds than any American died at about forty, and that another learned man, who proved conclusively that if we observed all the laws of health we need never die, expired before he got his book on that subject published. Satan meets another man who has gone through a long course of profligacy and is beginning to pray God for forgiveness, and Satan says to the man: "You are too late; the Lord will not help such a wretch as you; you might as well brace up and fight your own way through." And so with a spite and an aduteness and a velocity that have been gaining for six thousand years, he ranges up and down baffling, disappointing, defeating, afflicting, destroying the human race. Through his own hand or delegated infernalism he has pursued and hurt us all, and cursed every heart and cursed every home and cursed every nation and cursed every continent. He has indigated every war. He has rejoiced in every pestilence. He has started every groan. He has pressed out every sigh. He has hurled every shipwreck. Lazarettoes, insane asylums, commercial panics, plagues, destroying angels, continental earthquakes, and world wide disasters are to him a perfect glee. Can you look upon the Communism and the Mormonism and the Mohammedanism and the wide sweep of drunkenness and fraud and libertinism, the Franco-German war and Crimean war, the north and south United States war, and rivers of blood flowing across continents of misery into oceans of wretchedness, without realizing the power of the Evil One, who reported to the Lord Almighty, and when asked: Whence comest thou? answered: "From going to and fro in the earth and from going up and down in it."

But, blessed be God! I may substitute anthem for requiem and "Hallelujah Chorus" for the "Dead March in Saul." The New Testament says: "The Son of God was manifested that he might destroy the works of the devil." It prophesied that an angel would come down from heaven with key and chain and incarcerate and shut up the old dragon. It says that Christ came to "destroy him that had the power of death—that is the devil." And from the way Christ drove the devil out of those possessed by him until he was glad to hide under the bristles of the swine of Gadara and from other violent ejectments, we know that there is in existence a power a million fold mightier than the diabolic. The old lion of death shall go down under the stroke and roar of the "Lion of Judah's tribe." Yes, my text shows that Satan was compelled to report to the Almighty and give account of himself. When God said to him: "Whence comes thou?" he was forced to answer. What means that Scripture which says that Christ shall bruise the serpent's head? If you have ever killed a snake the passage ought to be plain to you. You see this old serpent, the devil, has crawled across the nations, poisoning whole generations and leaving its trail on everything; but after a while it will be cornered, and hissing and writhing in rage and with crest lifted and forked tongue shot out it will make final attack on Christ, and Christ will advance upon it, and lifting his omnipotent foot, that foot strong enough to crush a world, lifting that foot right over the head of the reptile, will put down his heel with a crushing power that shall leave the monster bleeding and mashed, never to hiss again or bite again or shake his old rattle again. Thank God he has already received a stunning blow. Hear you not the rumbling of the Christian printing presses and the whirling of the Gospel chariot wheels? As many souls have been added to the Christian church in the last eighty years as in the previous eighteen centuries, and that is a ratio of increase acclamatory with gladness. The kingdom is coming, and I am so sure of it that I do not propose to fret and worry because it has not already come. I may jump to get on a boat that is going off, but I do not propose to jump for a boat that is coming in. The sharp attacks of infidelity and sin are a good sign that especial blessing is coming in showers over all the earth. Files bite sharp just before rain.

THE OVERTHROW OF SATAN.

If we do not see the full consummation our children will see it. In the time of the French revolution a great procession of boys carried through the street a banner with the inscription: "Tremble, tyrants, we shall grow up!" Though we may fail to do our duty there is a rising generation being gospelized and coming by the hundreds of thousands from our Sabbath schools and Christian homes who might properly have on their banners: "Tremble, ye powers of darkness and sin, for we are growing up!" We may not amount to much in ourselves, but if we put ourselves in the right place we can do great exploits. Two put under two make only four; but placed beside two make twenty-two. Yet what you and I most need is power to drive back this Apollyon, this Asmodeus, this Ahrimanes from our hearts and lives. And we can do it not by our own strength, but by divine power afforded, for here is a passage emblazoned with encouragement which says: "Resist the devil and he will flee from you." Remember it is no sin at all to be tempted. The best and the mightiest have been tempted. Milton describes a fiend assaut at the ear of Eve. The sin is in surrendering. Do not feel so secure in yourself as to think you cannot be overthrown. How do you account for the fact that there are so many old men in Sing Sing and Auburn and the other penitentiaries, serving out their protracted sentences for frauds committed in mid life or advanced ages, although their early life had been good, and nothing bad been suspected of them until at 50 or 60 years of age the whole land was struck dumb at their forgery or embezzlement. The clock in the steeple of Old Trinity church striking the hours did not remind the recreant Wall streeter of the passage of time that would soon bring exposure to and doom. The explanation is that Mephistopheles, Apollyon, Satan got in his work at that time. The man was not naturally bad. He was as good as any of you are, but Satan with whole battalions of infernals swooped upon him unawares. Look out for the wiles of the devil, not only those of you who are young, but the middle aged and the old. Outside of God you are not safe a moment. But yield not to disheartenment. If we put our trust in God our best days are yet to come—days of victory, days of song, days of heaven, and the best days of the cause of righteousness in all the earth are yet to come. As the ten thousand men of Xenophon's army, when they came to the top of Mount Theches and saw the waters on which they were to sail to their homes, the soldiers with clapping hands and waving banners all together shouted: "The sea; the sea!" So we today in our march toward our heavenly home come up to the top of the mountain of holy anticipation and look off upon oceans of light and oceans of glory and oceans of joy; and thrilled as we have never been thrilled before we clap our hands and wave our gospel ensigns and cry one to another and shout up to the responding and reechoing heavens: "The sea; the sea."

His Grace is one of the most eloquent speakers on the American continent and was listened to with wrapt attention by the large congregation.

The New Time Table.

Following is the new time table for the Tacoma-Victoria route, boats (daily, except Sunday). The boats will leave Tacoma at 7:30 p. m., arrive in Seattle at 10 p. m., where at 1:30 a. m. another boat continues the route, arriving at Port Townsend at 5:30 a. m. The same boat leaves at 6 a. m., arriving in Victoria at 9:30 a. m. Returning the boats leaves Victoria at 11 a. m.—arrives at Port Townsend at 2:30 p. m., leaving at 3 p. m. —arrives in Seattle at 6:30 p. m., where a change of boat is made, leaving at 6:45 p. m., and arriving in Tacoma at 9:15 p. m.

A Warning.

The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the throat and lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives vast numbers of tubercle germs into the system and when these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the head, causing catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous and may lose you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your throat, lungs or nostrils, obtain a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief. *

Who Can Vote.

Mayor Grant has handed us the following for publication:

The following conditions and requirements, if complied with, will enable persons to vote at the coming municipal election in this city.

"Any male or female, being of the full age of twenty-one years, who is rated upon the assessment roll of the municipality, and who has paid on or before the first day of December in each year all municipal rates, taxes and license fees, or has resided and been a householder in the municipality for six months before the election at a rental or rent value of not less than sixty dollars per annum; provided always that every person claiming to vote as a householder shall be a British subject, and on or before the first day of December in each year shall enter with the assessor his or her name as a voter, but no such voter shall be required to re-register after being once registered."

Or any male or female of the full age of twenty-one years who has paid or who may pay a license for the present six months and has been a resident of Victoria for one year previous to the day of election is entitled to vote.

RAILWAY TO CARIBOO.

The Urgent Need of a Railway to Develope the Great Cariboo Country.

A Question that is Being Trifled With—The Pending Commons Election.

From our own Correspondent.]

It is manifestly the duty of the Government to do all it can to further the interests of the people and aid in the development of every part of this "glorious province," and to people the smiling fields that are at present "waste places." The capacity of the large plateau between the Selkirk and Cascade range to furnish food for thousands of people in unquestioned, but the farmers there have no market to speak of for their food-stuffs, nor any good means of transport. Anything coming to this place by the stage has to pay 25 cents per lb. The heavy freight wagons charge from 5 cts. to 7 cts. It must be evident that under such disadvantages the country cannot prosper. The farmers make nothing for want of a market. The teamsters make nothing, notwithstanding the apparently high rate of freight, but yet the consumer in this town has to pay enormous prices for the necessaries of life. What is the remedy for all this? A railway. There is not a consumer in this upper country but cries for a railway.

It is the opinion of every impartial man whose opinion is worth the having, that it is the great desideratum, the vital necessity, if this country is to be of any value to men now living. The men whose energies and endurance have kept them here for the last twenty years have done what they could, but they must have help to develop it, or the country will be deserted. Can you tell me, sir, why a railway, a work of such vital importance to the development of the mines as well as the farming interest, is always shelved or "burked" except at about election times?

There appears to be no insurmountable difficulty in building it. It is known that there is a good grade, the engineers have settled that. It is known that English capital is ready and willing to build a railway for a land grant, what then is the reason that steps are not taken to inaugurate a work which is so manifestly to the advantage of the country? The natural inference is that it must be to the advantage of the "powers that be" to keep things as they are. Any other view can hardly be held. It can't be pretended that the country is not worth the opening up. Such a contention would be absurd in the face of the facts. Payable mines are to be found on every side. In Alaska, on Douglas Island, Silver Bow Basin, the Yukon; you need not be told, of the gold taken out. To the south look how the country is going ahead, because they have pushed railways right into the mountains, and there are now cities of 20,000 or 30,000 inhabitants where nothing but the wild woods were to be seen 20 years ago. Look how the Kootenay and Selkirk section is being developed by the contiguity of a railway, and can it be held that this section, which has been one of the richest alluvial mining countries in the world, has no quartz worth prospecting? Quartz we know there is and in abundance, and it will be something unique in the history of mining if it should turn out that there are no payable reefs. With the improvement which invariably accompanies the advent of the "iron horse" we might look for bright times and prosperity for all.

The election of a representative to the Commons is the all-engrossing topic at present. It is impossible to name the winner yet, as each candidate claims to have a sure thing. Bets are freely offered and no takers that Rogers will poll here more than two to one of either of the other candidates. Some of them claim that Mr. Barnard will get 11 votes from Quesnelle up and Mr. McLeese probably about the same, but we must make due allowance for the rosy hues in which candidates view things. Considerable growling is indulged in over the voters' lists. Men whose names ought to be on are not on, and names of men who have been dead for years, or have left the country are on; and men whose names have been on continuously for many years, and still residents, are mysteriously left out in the cold just at this juncture.

MARVELLOUS TELEGRAPHY.

An Hour's Conversation Between Victoria and London.

During Saturday last, through the kindness of the managers of the Commercial Cable Company (Mackay-Bennett line) President Van Horne, of the C.P.R., and Mr. C. R. Hosmer, the Superintendent of the C. P. R. Telegraph Department, it was arranged by Sir Donald A. Smith, who is at present in London, to hold during yesterday a lengthened conversation with Mr. Thomas R. Smith, the Assistant Commissioner of the Hudson's Bay Company in this city, Sir Donald being at the London office of the cable company, at 8 o'clock p. m., (London time) and Mr. Smith at the C. P. R. Telegraph office in this city, at 12 o'clock noon, the difference in time between the two places being 8 hours. The operators were punctually in attendance, the instrument here being in charge of Mr. Wilson, of New Westminster, assisted by Mr. Archibald, the manager of the C. P. R. Telegraph office in this city. The connection with the world's metropolis was perfect, return messages being received almost instantaneously. The arrangements throughout were such as to reflect the greatest credit on Mr. C. R. Hosmer and all concerned, while the transmitting power of the C. P. R. wires was found to be of the highest order, the Mackay-Bennet cable being doubtless the finest that crosses the Atlantic. To fully appreciate the magnificence of the operation, it should be borne in mind that the conversation in question was carried on between persons separated from each other by a distance nearly equal to one-third of the circumference of the globe. Dr. Hannington was also present and furnished Sir Donald A. Smith with a full report on the condition of the Marquis of Ennismore, who has for some weeks past been under his charge, and is still lying seriously ill with typhoid fever in this city. Sir Andrew Clark, the great London physician, was unavoidably prevented from attending with Sir Donald at the office of the Cable Company and holding a personal consultation with Dr. Hannington on Lord Ennismore's case.

POLICE COURT.

[Before Hon. A. N. Richards, Q.C.]

The first case called was a charge of desertion against six seamen belonging to the bark Kaisow.

His Honor gave a decision in this case, and said the men had left the ship because they said the food was not good. It was likely they deserted to receive higher wages. They shipped in England at £2 10s. per month and could get $40 per month in this province. If men were allowed to desert no ship would come to this port. The men must be sent on board and will be confined in the provincial gaol until the ship sails.

Mr. Mason contended that under an Act recently passed, the men could not be confined in the gaol for desertion. They should be immediately be sent on board the ship.

Mr. Mills contended that the men are convicted and they should be sent to gaol for five weeks. The ship will sail in a month and they can be sent on board.

His Honor decided to send the men to gaol to await orders from the captain.

Lucy, an Indian woman, pleaded guilty on a charge of drunkenness.

Supt. Sheppard said the woman was before the court at least twenty times on this charge. She is one of the worst drunkards in the city.

The woman was sentenced to imprisonment for one month.

Jennie, a Fort Rupert Indian woman. Fined $5.

Ah Sing was charged by Officer Lavin with stealing an overcoat valued at $17 from the store of Benjamin Williams on Johson street. Prisoner said he would plead guilty and would prefer to pay for the overcoat instead of going to gaol.

Officer Lavin met the prisoner on Saturday night with an overcoat on. Asked him where he bought it; prisoner said from a Chinaman; took him to Benjamin Williams' store; Mr. Williams recognized the coat.

W. T. Williams—Missed the coat on Saturday night; Officer Lavin brought prisoner to the store with the coat.

Supt. Sheppard said a number of petty thefts had occurred lately. These men come out at dark and carry off numerous small articles.

His Honor—I suppose he will come out in the spring in good condition and ready for work.

The prisoner was sentenced to imprisonment for six months.

Peter Calson, drunk, fined $5 or one week.

James Domonicks, charged by Sergt. Walker with stealing $50 from John Tollick.

Sergt. Walker said from information received arrested prisoner on the Sound steamer; searched him and found imitation coins, an imitation $20 piece and fifty dollars.

John Tollick gave evidence regarding the stealing.

Prisoner made a long statement and was committed for trial.

SPORTING NEWS.

Match Played Between the Cowichan Rangers and Excelsiors.

Two horse races took place on Haliburton street, Nanaimo, on Friday, in the presence of a large concourse of spectators.

The first race was for a prize of $150. Three horses starting. Mr. Black's Vancouver horse—Slow Dick, winning in two straight heats. Ald. Baker's Sleepy Dan, coming in second in the first heat and Caswell's Royal coming in second on the second heat. The latter horse took the second prize.

The second race was won by Kilpatrick's Dandy the second prize being taken by T. Cassidy's Fanny.

RANGERS—EXCELSIORS.

The football match between Duncan's Employees and the South Cowichan Rangers was played on Saturday at McPherson's station, resulting in a draw, each team obtaining one try at goal close to the touch line. The ground being in a very unfavorable condition, owing to a week's frost and considerable snow over part of the field, good running was out of the question, the game consisting chiefly of scrimmages. For the same reason the time of play was short, consisting of two twenties.

J. Maitland Dougall, secured the try for the Excelsiors, and W. C. Burns secured the try for the Rangers. The Excelsiors had much the heavier team. It was a very fast and friendly match. The return match is shortly to be played at Duncan's Station.

Ranger's team—Forwards, E H Forrest, H Lewis, W Manley, G Rogers, Rogers, Rogers, E Hoosen, Clarke, B Ordano; half-backs, W Forrest, W C Burns, captain; three quarter backs, R Manley, J Blythe, J Hoosen; back, A A Ordano; umpire, Mr Lowe.

Excelsior's team—Forwards, Henry Good, Captain, Price, Price, Pettierew, Wilson, Green, McCarty, Bremner, Street; half-backs, Wood, Hirsch; three-quarter backs, J Maitland Dougall, Marsch, Barkeley; back, F H Maitland Dougall; umpire, Mr Bickmore.

THREATENING LETTERS.

Dr. Griffin Remanded Until To-Morrow Morning.

The same unabated interest was shown in the alleged charge of sending threatening letters preferred by Supt. Sheppard against Dr. G. Hamilton Griffin. Long before His Honor Judge Richards took his seat on the bench the court-room was crowded with spectators. When the doctor entered the court-room all eyes were turned on him and as he took a seat beside his counsel, it was apparent that he was not in the same happy humor which was characteristic of him during the first portion of the trial.

Mr. Eberts said he appeared on behalf of the prosecution. He had to procure further evidence which would be given to-morrow if an adjournment was not objected to.

Mr. Walker said the defense had no objection to a remand provided the prosecution finished their case to-morrow.

The doctor was then remanded until 11 o'clock to-morrow morning. The large crowd were much disgusted with the postponement, having waited over two hours whilst other cases were disposed of.

A NEW EL DORADO.

Return of Mr. Morris Moss from the Interior.

Mr. Morris Moss returned last night from a trip to the interior, during which he visited Rock Creek, Kettle River and the new camp on the Okanagan. The new camp is situated about four miles west of a point half way between Ellis and Kreuger's. The main ledge is eight feet wide, is traceable on the surface for three miles. Free gold is visible to the naked eye. Some ten men will winter there and a rush is expected in the spring. Little is being done on Rock Creek, the principal claims, Cariboo and Amelia, being held for speculative purposes by parties in Spokane. Douglas is down ninety-three feet in his shaft. The Laura Hydraulic Company's property looks well. The foundation for their saw mill is completed and three weeks work will put the mill in running order. Work on this claim will be vigorously pushed on in the spring. Judge O'Reilly was passed on Okanagan Lake on his way out.
